Paul will be presenting the message this Sunday. He throws out a challenge!
What is the purpose of Christianity? Is it to change society? Provide an alternative to secular society? Take individuals on a journey towards heaven? Or all of these? None of these? Or something else? What do you think?

So what has this to do with tossing balls and dancing bears? You will have to be there to find out.

You can give
 without loving,
 but you can't love
 without giving.
