

DID YOU KNOW

It seems that Mik Henzell is not the only person from this area who has worked for the church in Bolivia.

We have a record of a Wally Herron who was a missionary pilot in Bolivia for THIRTY years (1933 to 1964). Apparently he lived in Closeburn before leaving for South America. My source says that 'He was known and loved by the sick and the poor' in the area he served.

Wally Herron established seven churches, saved many lives with emergency flights and founded Bolivia's only leprosarium at Tane. Sadly, he was killed in a plane crash in the Andes.

Such were his achievements that he was awarded the highest award that can be given by the Bolivian government, The Condor of the Andes .

After Wally's death, his work was carried on by the son Robert.
