Thanks for the great support for our annual Christmas Hamper Project. We will be visiting a few more homes this year because of your generosity. As we went to print, it looked like 99 people in 54 homes will receive some very nice hampers. This includes 20 young people. Thanks to Ray White Rural, me.property sales - Michael Flanigan, Dayboro Lions, Dayboro Progress Association, Dayboro Neighbourhood Watch, and all of the Dayboro Churches. Volunteers will pack and deliver all the goodies next Wednesday (17th) from 9am at the UC Hall. Deliveries should commence around noon. Morning Tea and Lunch will be provided for our wonderful helpers.

Finance

I should like to follow up Chris's briefing from last week on the financial situation of our church. It is certainly a difficult problem to deal with and needs to be addressed quickly.

The Church Council has a plan to address this issue and it involves fundraising and asking for increased offerings from each one of us.

Unfortunately, there is no other choice than to go down this route. Could I ask you to consider your contribution to our church and look at increasing this? I am certainly going to do this because I believe I have gained something very special from being here at Dayboro and it is well worth fighting for. I have often said that this is the best church I have ever been in.

I desperately want it to continue and to prosper and I hope you do, as well.

Carol Singing

Dayboro Combined Churches Present their 2nd Annual Carol Singing in the Streets

December 20th 2014

Commencing at 5.30pm at St Francis Xavier McKenzie Street, proceeding to the School, St Aidans and ending at the Uniting Church William Street with a sausage sizzle.

One Christmas, Joe and Peter built a skating rink in the middle of a field. A shepherd leading his flock decided to take a shortcut across the rink. The sheep, however, were afraid of the ice and wouldn't cross it. Desperate, the shepherd began tugging them to the other side. 'Look at that,' remarked Peter to Joe, 'That guy is trying to pull the wool over our ice!'

*Q. What did Adam say on the day before Christmas?
A. It's Christmas, Eve.*

There were two blondes who went deep into the frozen woods searching for a Christmas tree. After hours of subzero temperatures a few close calls with hungry wolves, one blonde turned to the other and said,
"I'm chopping down the next tree I see. I don't care whether it's decorated or not!"
