Welcome to the Annual Dayboro High Tea! Presented by Dayboro Church

This year our speaker is the delightful Heather Foord. Journalist, News Reader, Wife & Mother.

Proceeds go to The Hope House, India

The Hope House is a charity established as a home for destitute, abandoned and orphaned little girls. Hope House aims to create a safe and caring family environment in which the holistic needs of the girls can be met. The girls will be educated, nurtured and encouraged to pursue their dreams.

Enjoy delectable treats of cakes, biscuits, sandwiches and, of course, tea!

Gluten-free food is also available.

Saturday 30th July at 10am in the Dayboro State School Hall

Tickets available on line. This event is NOT suitable for Children.

Please email Maria at m_m_m_2@hotmail.com if you have news to share in the newsletter.

CHURCH COUNCIL NEWS

There will be a brief Congregational Meeting on 31st July. John Ruhle (Presbytery Minister) will speak with the congregation regarding the appointment of our new pastor. And... ..

after that, we will have a wonderful lunch whilst being serenaded by our fabulous band.

Ann Turner: Church Council Secretary

This is a very important meeting where you will have your say on whether or not you agree with the committee's decision on who is to be the new Pastor/Minister at Dayboro Uniting Church. Please come along for this and then of course, stay for Faith & Fellowship and song....
