Pastor's Ponderings

The Season of Pentecost

Dayboro Day falls on Pentecost Sunday this year. So, we miss celebrating this unique holy day. And this next long season in the church liturgical calendar is called "Pentecost". Many churches mark Pentecost with a party, the "birthday of the church," celebrating with banners, red balloons, and maybe even a church birthday cake. We hear stories of rushing wind, tongues of fire, and cacophonous crowds. The church is born. Alleluia! The long-awaited day of the Lord is here!

But some would argue our world doesn't reflect that. War, famine, disasters, violence, youth crime, poverty... it is hard to pat ourselves on the back when it looks like "thy will be done" remains an unanswered prayer. I'm challenged to be involved not just as a passive pray-er, but someone who is actually involved in helping to bring about the Kingdom of God, and God's will being done on earth as it is in heaven. And not so much the greater world, but the world where I have a real chance to be involved and influence those around me.

As a congregation we have a pretty good handle on who we are. We are a people for whom God and all people are important. We are inclusive, welcoming, and accepting of everyone. We don't just say that, we are, I believe, good at it. People who visit us, people who "check us out", feel welcome, and feel accepted. I think that is just the first phase. Now we need to discover how we can take that beyond the walls of the chapel and hall, beyond the fence line & into our neighbourhoods, communities & beyond. Will you join me?

Shalom,
Danny

Dayboro Day Festival

Thank you so much to John Brereton and all his helpers for all the work they did before and during the day. The coordinators, a big thank you to you as well and to anyone who helped out on or before the day, thank you so much. At this point, everything is in place for us to have a great day of fun and fellowship.

Uniting Church - Dayboro - Who are we?

We are a group of ordinary and diverse people trying to follow the teachings and example of Jesus. You will find a wide variety of views and opinions here, but we are truly one family. As a community of faith, we love to share what we have through worship, our fellowship and acts of loving kindness. In this family of faith, God matters and all people matter. Therefore, we are intentionally inclusive. This is a place where all people can know that they are accepted just as they are. We are open to all. This isn't the type of church that will tell you how you should live as a "good Christian", we won't tell you how a "good Christian" should think, but we will tell you that you should think. We simply want to offer you love, acceptance and hope all in the person of Jesus Christ.

From Our Chairperson

Accepting this new role for 12 months I am conscious of the great work achieved by previous people in the job. So much has been achieved to make ours a congregation that is an outstanding group to be a part of. My top goal is to continue the work of growing our finances so we can increase Ps Dan's employment time allowing him to utilize more of his talent and knowledge. As we move forward together I hope that our open approach to communication and decision-making gives everyone a chance to stay united in our commitment to bringing the good news and teachings of Jesus to our community. Our strength is in our ability to work together, recognise and celebrate our diversity and to look for ways to help each other and our community in the day to day challenges that confront us. I am looking forward to the ongoing conversation and ideas about how we can refine and improve all that we do.

Dayboro Show

Saturday 8th July and Sunday 9th July

Conversation Club:

Joe Bradley gave us a great talk on Thursday 18th May about his life as a dairy farmer and the many other aspects of his life. We all thoroughly enjoyed his words.
