Chair of Church Council

Ian Ogston has resigned as Chair of Church Council. He has been a most energetic and effective Chair, and there have been many changes for the better in our church fabric during his year in office. I shall miss his wise counsel (because I need all the wise counsel I can get).

Congregational Meeting

This is a good spot to give advance notice of a Congregational Meeting after the morning service on Sunday 1 March (St David's Day! Cymru am byth! Coral, we'll have to sing Guide me O thou great Redeemer). And after that Meeting, there will be a bbq lunch in the church grounds.

Welfare managers to retire at last

Our wonderful welfare managers, Ann and Kay, will retire in a few months time. They have worked very very hard, far beyond the time when other folk would have been taking it easy. Much of our church's high visibility in the town is down to Ann and Kay carrying forward the welfare ministry which Paul kicked off. God bless them, and their lovely families.

So if you think that you'd like to have a stab at filling their unfillable shoes (no, sisters, I don't mean that you have big feet!), or if you have an idea about someone whose shoulder we should tap, have a word with Ann or Kay or Richard. Perhaps we might consider opening the rôle to someone from our welfare partners, the Catholic Church or Lions or the Progress Association? It's something which the Congregation can discuss at our Meeting on March 1.

Contributions for the Newsletter

Read any good books lately? Or found a website which has helped your Christian life and/or witness? Or do you have secret knowledge of an upcoming event? Tell Richard, and see your name in lights (OK, in Apple Verdana 11).
