FROM RICHARD

Dear Friends

Leisa and I are grateful to God for four and a half very happy years with the two wonderful congregations of Dayboro Uniting Church and Mt Mee Community Church. We leave with marvellous memories (and great presents!) Thank you.

You'll see us around in Dayboro IGA, Scott's butcher shop and the other Scott's bakery, and I expect ANZAC Day. Of course, not forgetting the Dayboro Bowls Club. I have several weddings lined up in my diary at Mt Mee and Dayboro, and a few sad impending funerals.

We'll see you daily in our prayers and we'll carry you around in our hearts.

Love and Blessings!

Richard and Leisa

CHURCH COUNCIL NEWS

Re: interview committee for Dayboro Pastor

Currently we have five volunteers; Fiona Patterson, Bev Oelrichs, Maria Hansen, Tim Keogh and Mike Huggett for the interview committee. There is still time for another volunteer to join the interview committee. We have invited Mt Mee Community Church to nominate a representative also.

Ann Turner (Secretary Church Council)

CASSEROLE BANK

The casserole bank is running low so, if you are able to make a couple and put them in the church freezer that would be great. It may be best to make one or two every few weeks so we can keep up the stocks. Maybe even check before you make more.

Please label with INGREDIENTS & DATE MADE

This way we can keep a track of how things are going.

Thank you everyone....Kay
