DAYBORO DAY FESTIVAL:

What a wonderful day we had! Dayboro was shining and then glistening with May showers and then shining again. Being in the parade this year was wonderful and congratulations to our winning Waterless Raft Race Team. Our DUC Polo shirts and T Shirts were a hit. We all looked like a well oiled team with our team colours on. Early counting is indicating that our profit will be slightly up on last year. I think we all deserve a pat on the back. We all worked well together and the smiles on peoples faces were lovely to see. Thank you all.

It's all about COMMUNITY

CHURCH MARKET STALL

YES, the 3rd June is market day, THIS SUNDAY. Can we do it, of course we can! Hoping Ann and Liz will be there bright and early to help me, with Lois coming over to relieve the team after Church.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CRAFT

We will be continuing Craft afternoons throughout the year, the exception being when we have a Ladies Luncheon. NO CRAFT ON TUESDAY 12th JUNE.

LADIES LUNCHEON DATES:

Tuesday 12th June, rsvp to Maria by 10th June
 Tuesday 14th August, rsvp to Maria by 12th August
 Lunch will be at Rendezvous starting at 11.30am

Next Sunday at DUCA

Paul will be presenting the message next Sunday. He throws out a challenge!

What is the purpose of Christianity? Is it to change society? Provide an alternative to secular society? Take individuals on a journey towards heaven? Or all of these? None of these? Or something else? What do you think?

So what has this to do with tossing balls and dancing bears? You will have to be there to find out.

Jesus knows me,
 this I love!
