Pastor Ponderings

This coming Sunday is Pentecost Sunday, and the church moves into the “After Pentecost or Ordinary time” on the calendar. This Sunday, we remember the birth of the church long ago. In Jerusalem, the Holy Spirit descended upon the followers of Jesus and filled them with power, vision, hope and excitement. It lifted them up, flooded their hearts with love, and sent them forth. They learned that with the power of God’s Holy Spirit at work in them great things happened. The church grew.

What is it that holds up our congregation here at Dayboro Uniting? Is it my preaching? Is it the wonderful mix of traditional and more modern hymns? Is it the enthusiasm and talent of our wonderful Tempo? Is it the heritage of years past? Is it the fact we have arguably the best site in town for a church – right on the main street? No! While most of that might very well contribute to us being who we are, it is the power of the Holy Spirit at work among us. It must be, else we would simply be just another service club.

But if the spirit of God is set free in our midst, if we allow ourselves to be embraced by the power of God, if we allow that spirit to direct us in the way God would have us go, Dayboro Uniting will continue to be an influence for transformation, a place of grace, a chapel of hope, and a house of welcome for all of God’s children. Dayboro Uniting will continue to be a place where people find love, acceptance and forgiveness. It is the Spirit of God that empowers our ministry of offering God in Jesus Christ to all the world.

Pray this prayer today. Pray it now.

Creator God pour your spirit upon me this day. Fill me with your power, grant me your vision, and send me forth with your purpose. Use me in new ways and may your kingdom grow just a bit today because of something you led me to do. Pour out your spirit upon my congregation, O God. Fill it with power and vision. Send it forth to build your kingdom of love and peace. Amen.

See you in church!

Danny
