TUESDAY AFTERNOON CRAFT

Last Tuesday just proves that there does not have to be heaps of people. There were three of us and we had the most amazing conversations. Come along and join the fun.

BABY NEWS: Congratulations to Matt and Lauren Nugent on the birth of their daughter, Vera Audrey. Congratulations also to grandparents, Dan and Carolyn. Now the fun begins!

Good Friday Worship

Paul will be taking the Good Friday Service at 8.30am on Friday 30th March.

Jesus declared, "I have come so that you may have life and live it abundantly."

Jesus' passion was about living. Living fully, abundantly.

Jesus' passion was about a world where everyone could live life fully & abundantly. Jesus went from town to town urging people to live. Jesus struggled to free people from their narrow understandings to, open themselves to the wonders of creation, & to praise the Creator whom he called Abba, in ways that honoured God by loving. Indeed, Jesus defined Abba as LOVE itself. Jesus was so in tune with this LOVE that he was able to say, "I and the Abba are ONE." Jesus embodied LOVE. Jesus was so open to the power of the LOVE that is God that he was able to live his life fully without fear. Jesus wanted more than anything else for his followers to be so open to the power of LOVE that is God that they too would live their lives fully without fear. That's what Jesus meant when he said, "I have come that you might have life and live it abundantly."

Instead of seeing Good Friday as a day of sadness and guilt, we will look at the events of this day as an expression of LOVE our love for our world and its people and look at what it means "to live life abundantly".

Invite your family and friends to join you and make this Easter truly holy.

mainly music is going very well with its new leader, Nichole. We are now one family short of reaching our limit and will soon have to start a waiting list. The wonderful team would welcome anyone interested in joining them each Tuesday morning for a fun time with little kids and their parents.
