SUNDAY SPACE—12/8 Fiona & Maria, 19/8 Carolyn & Robyn, 28/8 Carolyn & Annie

Sunday 12th August Paul's message TODAY is titled Living a Life of Love. For all of us who have struggled to stay on a diet, we know the importance of developing taste for the right foods for us. What we don't eat on a diet can be far more important than what we do eat.

We have come to make some hard choices that fill our days and thus fill our hearts and minds. We have to be selective about what satisfies our hunger. It is the same with our choices to spend our days loving others and managing our dislike of some. What did Paul and John have to say about this? Are their advices still relevant?

CHURCH MARKET STALL - - 5th August

What a great day we had. Just checking, but it is winter isn't it?? We had another bumper day with heaps of cakes and goodies to sell. Robyn, Liz and Maria had their cooking aprons on. I have been given some new bric a brac from Mary Wyatt to sell at next market. I think this is the secret, keep this changing. Thank you ladies and gentlemen for another great day.

LADIES LUNCHEON

This Tuesday, 14th August, is the next ladies luncheon. Please let Maria know by SUNDAY, if you are coming so she can let Deb at Rendezvous know numbers. Come along and bring a friend, we have heaps of fun, lots of talking and an abundance of fellowship.

TUESDAY CRAFT AFTERNOON

This coming Tuesday will be the Ladies Luncheon so NO CRAFT but I will go down to Church and be there if anyone has a hamper to pick up.

Next Tuesday, 21/8 NO CRAFT, Tuesday 28/8 CRAFT. So we will be having craft every second Tuesday to correspond with when the hampers are picked up. I will advise in Bulletin when craft is on and when it isn't.
