Christmas Hampers:

We are now at the point of preparing for packing. All the food has been acquired, lots of toys, gifts and sweet things. With over 40 volunteers registered to the various tasks it is now important for them to be at their tasks at the following times:

Monday – RSL ute and trailers to Paul's place at 9am, then unpacking into the hall at approximately 9.30am (need tables set up in two rows). Food sorted and laid out. Paul and Robyn pick up fruit and vegetables and deliver to hall at 5pm. Damon and boys and others unpack using trolleys. Fruit sorters count and calculate distribution of fruit with assistance of Chris. (This will be kept under air-conditioning in kitchen overnight). Toys finalised.

Tuesday – Packers, labellers, sorters arrive before 9am (check in with Paul first) and commence the packing at 9am. 10.30am Drivers arrive for orientation and whole team has morning tea together. 11am Deliveries commence. Drivers are advised to have Sat Nav and/or mobile phone with access to Internet for address details. Travel in pairs please. Please exercise care in taking correct hampers, toys and fruit.

We need some more help with Morning Tea preparation – 10 for 10.30am on Tuesday. Please contact Paul – 0414 672 222

Book Launch- You are invited to the launch of the book Terror to Triumph at Rendezvous on Tuesday, 26 February at 7pm. One of the 12 authors in this book is a local resident, Jill Garvey. Drinks and nibbles will be served there. This book is the second book published by the not-for-profit organization called Broken to Brilliant which is an organization whose goal is to reduce the long-term impact of domestic violence by increasing financial independence, decreasing distress, increasing opportunities through education, life-skills training, and social support networks and supporting the rebuilding efforts of those who have experienced domestic violence.

BIRTHDAYS : Poppy & Don share a birthday this Sunday 16th—yummy cake! Poppy will be 10 years old. Mike Huggett will celebrate his birthday on Tuesday 18th. Happy Birthday everyone..

More birthdays next week, which means, more CAKE!!
