

You may have noticed that we are not having our normal Market stall at the Dayboro Markets. Firstly we were undecided if it was safe, it is still a bit of a risk. Secondly, it has become a problem with getting people to man the stall. It is toooooo cold at that time in the morning. We thought we could wait until it is a bit warmer. Then we had a thought, why not just have a GARAGE SALE on a Saturday in Dayboro Uniting Church yard. We could have it at a time that would suit us.

We have had lots of interest from members of the congregation wanting to clean out their cupboards. Just be aware, if it isn't sold, we will have to take it home until the next sale.

The next thing we need to do is advertise and make sure we have people come and buy. Melissa is making us a banner that we will place on the front fence. We will also have to be aware of COVID-19 restrictions and also a risk assessment has to be done.

Anyone interested in helping, please see Maria.

Lectionary Readings:

'The Uniting Church acknowledges that the Church has received the books of the Old and New Testaments as unique prophetic and apostolic testimony, in which it hears the Word of God and by which its faith and obedience are nourished and regulated...

The Uniting Church lays upon its members the serious duty of reading the Scriptures, [and] commits its ministers to preach from these...'

CIRCLES OF CARE

I hope everyone has been able to keep their circles going. I must admit that I have been a bit lacking with this since Sunday morning services have begun. I will try to do better.

SAFE WORKING WITH CHILDREN TRAINING DAY

Proposed date: Saturday 12th September.

Proposed time: 9.30am

This training is compulsory for anyone who will be working with children in the Uniting Church and must be repeated every two years. Most of those who work with children will need to do the training this year.

Everyone is required to do Module 1. Some people will be required to do more modules – depending on the positions they hold in the church (eg. church councillors and lay preachers.)

It is now possible to do this training on-line if you prefer.

NOTES:

This date may change if the COVID-19 restrictions change.

We are currently limited to 35 persons in the hall. If it is necessary to reduce numbers, preference will be given to:

Church council members (5)

Lay Preachers (2)

Sunday Space leaders and helpers.

If you would like further information, please see Jenny Brown.
