

Circles of Care News from Hosts

Andris and Marion report:

Our circle met in downtown Dayboro, 6 of us enjoyed the sunshine, ate home cooked treats and supported the local coffee shops. Great to get together, chat and support Dayboro.

Maria and Mark report:

Mark has been keeping in touch with the male side of our circle with phone calls. Last week and again this week, we are having Circle morning teas on our deck. The blokes are included in this week's. Of course they will meet in the shed/garage, unless restrictions lift a bit. It has been lovely seeing our Church community face to face.

Coral and Tim report:

Everyone in our circle has been enthusiastic. I was delighted to meet a new friend, Jenny Easlea and I am looking forward to meeting her soon. I think she may come to our Sunday jams. I have sent the services each week and I even sent them to my mum in the UK, and one time, to a flute student of mine. We shared photos of an owl that we rescued and I will send a photo of a beautiful sunset this week.

Paul and Robyn report:

Our circle has been very responsive and friendly keeping in touch with each other and sometimes having small group morning teas. We think it is something worth continuing.

Ian and Elizabeth report:

When our circle was established, contacts were back and forth with each of the group and good, warm links were made. Out of this exchange, Gloria sent music links and pictures and soon a number of us did likewise. This became a rich and vital part of the connection between some of the Circle members. Long may it continue. Truly wonderful

Don and Lois report:

Our small circle is happy and well. We continue to enjoy the one-line services and encourage each other with phone calls and messages.

Ann and Bill report:

We keep in contact with our Circle mostly by phone. Several of our people come to Picnic in the Park meetings so we see them quite often. Paul Edgington is now about to brave the world on his new disability scooter, which looks like a massive Harley Davidson motorbike. Norma has been doing jigsaws and playing patience in between doctor's visits. We are so lucky to have such wonderful people in our church community.

'What really holds us all together, is the weekly services from Danny, Paul, Shirley and Joy and the team that work hard to produce the videos. We cannot thank you enough' Ian O

CHURCH COUNCIL

The Church Council will be meeting next Sunday, 7th June, to discuss how and when we will be able to commence our face to face worship. Lots of things to consider with this move. We will have news about this after our meeting to share with you.

CONVERSATION CLUB NEWS

To continue meeting under the Coronavirus Government regulations, Conversation Club has evolved into four groups which meet in either the Apex Park or the park bounded by Morris, Laidlaw and Dowling Streets. Current members have been invited to a "A Picnic in the Park" once a week. To date 36 members have accepted the invitation. We spend a pleasant hour and a half chatting, telling stories and jokes. It has been wonderful catching up with each other, finding out what is going on in the district and generally laughing and having fun. Groups are hosted by Dugi and Bronwen Wilson, Bill and Ann Turner, Christine Turpin and Lorraine Goebel-Brown. Picnic in the Park meetings are officially sponsored by Dayboro Lions Club. Photographs may be seen on the Lions Facebook page.
