Dayboro Get-Together—SUNDAY 8th October from 1pm at Dayboro Showgrounds

For people between 50-74 years of age. Were you born between 1943 and 1967? Did you start your education at Dayboro SS or any of the surrounding one-teacher schools between 1948 & 1973 or have you had a long-term (20 years or more) association with the Dayboro District?

If so, you are invited to an informal get-together for old time's sake at the Dayboro Memorial Showgrounds, 3512 Mt Mee Rd, Dayboro on Sunday 8th October 2017 from 1pm. It will be a bring a plate afternoon tea. There is a charge of $5 per person to cover the cost of the building hire and any other expenses that maybe incurred. Tea/coffee/milk/sugar will be provided.

Bring along photographs or any other memorabilia (trophies etc) you may wish to share with those present:

RSVP: Friday 29th September to DDHS PO Box 143 Dayboro email: ddhs4521@gmail.com or phone Carmel on 0407 595 645

Next ladies luncheon will be on 10th October at Rendezvous attending. Please let Lois know if you are attending. All welcome, in fact, bring a friend

Pastoral Care: If any member of the congregation is concerned about the welfare of another member, please bring these concerns to the attention of Pastor Dan and Carolyn. We have to keep a look out for each other with this nasty flu going around.

THIS FROM CHRIS CLARK:

Hobart Tow Courier of Friday February 14, 1834

Donald More, a dashing young drover from somewhere north of the Braes O'Doune had purchased a musical snuff box and being determined to make a display he carried the same to church on Sunday. The snuff was prime, but unfortunately when handling a pinch to a cronie, and just as the minister had begun to draw his inferences, off went the box to the not inappropriate tune of "We're a' noddin". Donald applied himself to the stop catch, which he mistook and away went the music to the profane "Maggie Lauder". In the perturbation of the moment, Donald tried to smother the box with his sporran, but at last took fairly to his heels, but dropped it. The percentor (the person who leads the church singing) enraged at the assumption of his department, with one stamp of his foot silenced forever this orchestra in miniature. Said Donald, in a large mouthful of Gaelic, "She had more tunes then Donald, the man that puts out the psalms, and that was not more than two."

Chris says ; At least our band can put out more than two tunes!

Perhaps we should have a notice at the beginning of the service, 'please make sure that your mobile phones and snuff boxes are turned off'.

Happy Sunday to everyone from Yeppoon...Maria and Mark
