CHURCH MARKET STALL—Sunday 6th May

Liz and I will not be in attendance at the May market. I know Ann and Lois will be there but, if you have some free time to help with set up and pack up, I know they would really appreciate the help. Then it's all hands on deck for Dayboro Day Festival Sunday 27th May. Peter Dutton, Darren Grimwade and Nikki Boyd will all be in attendance at the Church Service on DD at 8am.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CRAFT

We had two ladies who receive hampers drop in on Tuesday for their hampers. It was lovely to meet them and have a chat. Tuesday will be a little light on with people as both Liz and I will be away. Lois, Sue and Gloria will be there, so come along and join the gang.

ATTENTION ALL:

Baked goods, produce, ingredients, bric a brac, books and volunteers needed for Dayboro Day. Please see stall coordinators to let them know WHEN you are volunteering and put your name against what you will be bringing along to help out our Café, Street Stall, Bric a Brac and book stalls. Sheets on various cupboard doors in the kitchen for Café donations and help.

VINTAGE HATS & HANDBAGS HIGH TEA—Saturday afternoon 12th May. Please book your tickets at Eventbrite so you don't miss out. It should be a lovely afternoon. See Maria for details.

May 19th at 9am—Working Bee and Cleaning Bee to spruce up our lovely Church for Dayboro Day. We will have a clean up of the cupboards as well.

mainly music

mainly music is underway again. We have a full quota of kids and will be starting a waiting list. However, every so often a family has to drop out for all sorts of reasons and a space will come up. Please don't hesitate to register as a new family.

Home Group

We had a great discussion on Heaven and Hell. No conclusions reached but lots of theories. This was followed by lunch and more talking and laughter. What a great group.
