The Casserole Bank

A big thank you to the cooks who are keeping us supplied with meals. We are currently distributing single meals to a very sick man who is incredibly appreciative of the wonderful food.

Easter – Good Friday

Paul and Robyn are taking the 8.30am service on Good Friday. It will run for about 45 minutes. The theme they are working around is: I remember a man.... with readings, narrative, moments of reflection, film clip, music and songs. They are looking for a few willing people to present short passages. Make a commitment to be present at this sacred service.

Jeanette Easlea

Jeanette will be remembered by many in the congregation as a long term elder and musician in the Dayboro Uniting Church. She now lives in a unit at North Lakes but is limited in mobility. After a long period of battling ill health and ulcers on her feet, Jeanette has made remarkable recovery and is bright and cheerful and keenly interested in our congregation and community. We give thanks. She sends her regards and love to all. Jeanette is part of our PrayerNet and actively prays for those in need.

mainly music

We now have a full quota of families and children. This means that newcomers will have to go on a waiting list. As some families move or withdraw for all sorts of reasons, our policy is to welcome new families for one week to find out what it is like and then place them on the waiting list until a vacancy comes up.

Dayboro Day, esp Trash n'Treasure

We don't have a convenor yet for Trash n'Treasure. It contributes well to our takings for the day, but we won't be able to have the familiar stall this year unless someone steps forward to take on the Convenor rôle.

Have a word with Leisa.

And pâtissiers! Please start cooking for the street stall, a great money spinner.

Pew sheet, or if you prefer, Newsletter

Do you dream of editing a major publication? Of deadlines and expense accounts and dramatic scoops? Me too. But while we wait for the call from the Chairperson of Vogue Magazine, how about preparing yourself for that new career by editing and producing our pew sheet? Talk to Richard.
