A Musical Sunday Afternoon in Dayboro

Last Sunday, our musicians led an afternoon of beautiful music in our hall. This is an initiative of Annalie who is keen to connect our Church with the local community and local musicians in particular. The music ranged from classical (Handel, Mozart) to jazz and folk. We were joined by saxophone, concertina, violin and ukulele players and singers. Liz provided afternoon tea which led to a very pleasant social time. Our next music afternoon is on the second Sunday of October which is October 14th. More details can be supplied by Annalie (0417319411) or at the Facebook site Dayboro Jam. Why not become a member and join in the fun. Everyone is welcome. Remember, your voice is a beautiful instrument, so bring it along.

THANKS FROM ROBYN

Thank you everyone who contributed in many ways to the wonderful service (although not designed specifically for my birthday, my family was very enthusiastic about it!) and to the magnificent morning tea. I loved it all as I love you all. Robyn

BIRTH DATES PLEASE—come on, we are all getting older, it's only a number! Can you please all send me your date of birth, if you haven't already, year as well please, so we can celebrate your day. Especially if there is a ZERO on the end. Church is the place to have our celebrations and milestones acknowledged, happy and sad ones.

A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory!
