HAPPY BIRTHDAY JAN PAGE, SUNDAY 5TH August .

SUNDAY SPACE—5/8 Fiona & Paul, 12/8 Fiona & Maria

NEWS OF GLENN BELL Robyn and Paul visited Glenn after church last Sunday. Mark on Wednesday and Maria visited him on Thursday. He is going very well after a very big heart operation. He is walking everyday and although he is still sore, is remarkably well. He asked that the congregation be thanked for their prayers. Lexie is happy to have Glenn at home and also thanks everyone for their kind wishes and prayers.

Sunday 12th August Paul's message next Sunday is titled Living a Life of Love. For all of us who have struggled to stay on a diet, we know the importance of developing taste for the right foods for us. What we don't eat on a diet can be far more important than what we do eat.

We have come to make some hard choices that fill our days and thus fill our hearts and minds. We have to be selective about what satisfies our hunger. It is the same with our choices to spend our days loving others and managing our dislike of some. What did Paul and John have to say about this? Are their advices still relevant?

CHURCH MARKET STALL -- TODAY

Thank you to those who have already donated cash for the shopping. It is very much appreciated. Please come over Sunday and say HELLO. Lots of great stalls to check out.
