Pastor Ponderings

Welcome to Ordinary Time

At the time of writing this we are entering the second week of the second period of Ordinary Time (as opposed to sacred time) in the church calendar. These are Sundays that are not directly related to the Christmas or Easter holidays. Rather than referring to something every day or common, "ordinary," in this sense, comes from the word ordinal (meaning "numbered"), they are also referred to as the times of the church.

The colour green is most often associated with the periods of Ordinary Time, and can generally be found in the chapel during these portions of the liturgical year. It is usually considered a symbol of the Church's growth and rebirth. The second part of Ordinary Time begins after the Easter Season, on Pentecost Monday, and ends on the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. Although not the focus of the liturgical calendar, for Christians of all denominations Ordinary Time remains an important part of the ecclesiastical year, one in which they can live in the spirit of life and rebirth and continue in the work of the church. It is a time to focus on the life & ministry of the church.

See you in church!
Danny
